Registration process

An administrator will take care of the registration for you.

If an administrator added your account to op-buce.com you receive an email from info@op-buce.com.

The registration occurs in two steps. The first step is to click at the confirmation link in the email. This will confirm your email address and activate your account. The second step is, that you will get another email. This email contains your login information (username and the temporary password). Now you are able to log in to your account on op-buce.com.
